

You have options when it comes to History Center parking.

The incredible growth and development of Water Street and the Channel District have added so much to the neighborhood surrounding the Tampa Bay History Center, which includes new public parking options.

There are five multi-story parking garages, including the brand-new East Cumberland Garage, just a short walk to our front doors. Here's our list of the top places to park during your next visit to the History Center. This list includes thousands of parking spaces near the History Center, other downtown destinations and the Tampa Riverwalk.

5-minute walk [\[map it!\]](#) • Garrison Street Parking Lot

615 Channelside Dr, Tampa, FL 33602. Street-level accessible parking is available. Use the raised pedestrian walkway to cross Beneficial Drive when exiting the parking lot.

5-minute walk [\[map it!\]](#) • East Cumberland Garage

1045 E Cumberland Ave, Tampa, FL 33602

6-minute walk [\[map it!\]](#) • Channelside Parking Garage

810 Channelside Dr, Tampa, FL 33602

6-minute walk [\[map it!\]](#) • Pam Iorio Parking Garage

301 Channelside Dr, Tampa, FL 33602. Limited availability during Amalie Arena events.

6-minute ride and walk [\[map it!\]](#) • Old Fort Brooke Municipal Parking Garage

107 N Franklin St, Tampa, FL 33602. Ride the free TECO Streetcar northbound, starting at the Whiting Street Station (11) and ending at the HSBC Station (9).

Click here for streetcar times.

Road Construction

Water Street Tampa is taking shape around the History Center with walkability, sustainability and wellness in mind. Currently, the intersection of Channelside Drive and Water Street is temporarily closed to vehicle traffic. This does not impact the best places to park when planning your visit. Click here for a map.

801 Water Street | Tampa Riverwalk
tampabayhistorycenter.org | 813.228.0097